J. Henry Dinstbier of St. Louis Missouri being at present in good health and of sound mind do make this to be my last will and testament hereby expressly revoking all former wills and testaments by me made.

First it is my will that all my just debts shall be paid out of my personal estate which I may have or possess at the time of my death.

Second. I hereby devise my homestead, being <sup>all my right title & interest in</sup> a lot of ground fronting thirty three feet on Cherokee street by a depth of one hundred and fifty feet on Lemay Avenue together with a two story brick building out houses and other improvements, in said City of St. Louis, as follows: One undivided third interest therein to my son John Dinstbier of my first marriage in fee; One undivided third interest therein to my daughter Margaret Ettling wife of August Ettling also of said first marriage, in fee; and one undivided third interest to my three children of my third marriage in equal parts which three children are named Simon Dinsthler, Johann Eckhardt Dinsthler and Fritz Dinsthler. I also appoint August Eckling to be my executor of this my will.

Witness my hand this thirtieth day of June A. D. 1871

Simon Dinsthler

We attest the foregoing and above will by subscribing our names hereto as witnesses in the presence of Henry Dinsthler and in the presence of each other the said Henry Dinsthler the testator having declared the same to be his last will & testament in our presence and requested us to attest the same
